this book is a meditation on the experiences of wonder horror and awe and an exploration of their ontological import it argues that these experiences are not as our culture often presumes merely subjective emotive responses to events that happen in the world rather they are transformative experiences that fracture our ordinary lives and in so doing provide us access to realities of which we would otherwise be oblivious wonder horror and awe like the experiences of love and death to which they are so intimately related are not events that happen in our world but events that happen to it and thus alter our life as a whole miller explores the impact of that transformation its deconstructive effect on our ordinary sense of our selves and the breakthrough to a new understanding of being which it makes possible
